THE TIMES.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 17, 1907.

Notice to Subscribers.

We have received quite a number of complaints about our paper not being delivered promptly recently. We urge our patrons to promptly inform us—writing direct to this office—of the failure to receive any copy and we will at once take such steps as are necessary to abate the evil.

Appomattox Day was celebrated at Chicago on April 9th, by the Hamilton Club. Congressman Cushman responded to the toast "Appomattox Day." The next speaker was Congressman Stanley, who paid an eloquent tribute to Lee and Grant the leaders of the two armies whose contentious ceased at Appomattox forty-two years ago, today, saying:

"I rejoice that tonight upon the anniversary of that fateful day when the South contemplated the scene without shame and the North without exultation.

"Many have been the reasons for the war assigned by statesmen and historians, yet they are all but the many results of the one great cause. The North had ceased to know the South; the South was a stranger to the North.

"Had New York and New Orleans, Richmond and Philadelphia, Chicago and Memphis been connected by great trunk lines fifty years ago the chambers of commerce of these cities would have averted a catastrophe which baffled the wisdom, the eloquence and the patriotism of sages and statesmen."

"While we have nothing to say against Judge A. S. Hall, of Buckingham, knowing him to be a first-class gentleman in every respect, yet, we must say, that in opposing Senator A. E. Strode, the present incumbent, he will have a "hard road to travel."—Scottsville Enterprise.

Our James River neighbor makes the same mistake that many other papers have done recently in placing the brilliant Senator from Amherst county, Mr. Aubrey E. Strode, in the same district with Judge Hall. The former represents the 19th district and the latter lives in the 18th district, now represented by Hon. Camm Patteson, of Buckingham.

Thaw has to face another jury, and with the record of 8 to 4 against him, Atty. Jerome will fight bail as strenuously as he has acquittal. "The way of the transgressor is hard." May be not quite so hard with the rich in this life as with the poor, but still hard.

If Attorney Jerome really smokes 100 cigarettes a day we may look out for other "brain storms" after the Thaw trial is done with. We did'nt know before how to account for his erratics. At times during the trial he has evidently been beside himself.

The English papers are terrific in their criticisms of the speeches of both Delmas and Jerome. They are of the opinion that the speakers must hve thought that the jurors were men of some emotion and not a bit of brains.

Mr. Cleveland and Mr. Bryan will each speak at the Jamestown Exposition, but it goes without saying that they will not speak from the same stand nor on the same day.

It is little short of remarkable how many Republican leaders are making a noise like a man kicked on the shins.

County Politics.

At no distant day the question of electing Delegates to the General Assembly will be discussed. This is a matter of considerable importance to the tax-payers of Virginia, and every voter should give the matter mature consideration. This is a question of dollars and cents, to us all. Look at the waste of our money by the last Legislature. Spent four hundred thousand dollars, all the money that we had in the Treasury, and created a debt for us to pay approximating three (3) hundred and nineteen thousand dollars. If these figures are questioned, I will thank any one to write to the Auditor and give us the exact amount, I do not wish to misstate it, I simply wish my brother voters to know where they are, and how our hard earned money has been and for them to find out what acts have been passed to lessen our burden or replenish our Treasury. And after this had been done they passed a bill increasing the salary of the members double, and snowed under a bill that the citizens of our county in mass-meeting assembled adopted, known as the Appomattox County Road Law. There was no earthly reason why any member should have opposed the bill, as it only affected the county of Appomattox, no other county. It is to be hoped that some one will be nominated, who can honestly say that he had no hand in defeating the wishes of the people, and he ought to be asked to t question and required to answer it, or black ball him. Our Representative should remember that he is simply the servant of his constituents, to carry out their wishes. Of course our Representatives in the last General Assembly will not offer again. That would be a reflection upon the intelligence of our people. And now if we wish to return to the right and proper way of doing, we should confer the Senatorial honor upon a Fluvanna man; Appomattox and Buckingham have both named and elected their man, and in turn Fluvanna has the right to expect it. X.

Buckingham.

I am writing on April 15th, and at 5:30 a. m. The mercury registers 26° above zero or 4° below freezing, and ice has formed nearly ¼ of an inch thick.

The three ladies appointed to solicit funds to be sent to the Chinese sufferers reported $6.50 and this will be sent by the Presbyterian Church.

Circuit Court adjourned Saturday. The cases against Ellis and Lloyd charged with burning the store house of Mrs. N. F. Lightfoot, at Arvonia, was tried and the accused were acquitted. The negro Woodson, charged with attempting criminal assault on a white woman, was found guilty, and his sentence was eight years in the penitentiary.

Col. Lyons, Congressman Flood, Senator Strode, Senator Patteson, Ex-Senator F. C. Moon, W. D. Patteson and Wm. Lancaster were some of the lawyers who attended court. Judge Hall was away attending the burial of his uncle, Dr. Lucien Hall, near Crozet, in Albemarle county. Dr. Hall died at his farm on Monday the 8th inst. Judge Hall returned on Thursday.

Judge John R. Moss announces his candidacy for the Legislature and Mr. A. J. Bondurant is another of the many who aspire to a seat in the State Senate.

Professor H. Blankinship was recently appointed as principal of the High School by the Board composed of the clerk of each district Board in Buckingham. Mrs. S. B. Bondurant, Miss N. C Swoope and Miss Fannie Fitzgerald also were reappointed. Miss Fitzgerald in addition to her duties in art and music will have charge of a class in the primary department. All the teachers had an increase of salary allowed. Inspector Thomas was present at the meeting of the Board and spoke in the highest terms of the work done this session. Supt. Eggleston asked that the counties contiguous to the Normal school contribute (as they did last year) to the support of the Summer School of Methods to be held there again this summer, and the Buckingham County Board appropriated $100 for this purpose, and voted a pay of $2.50 a month to be added to the salary of each teacher from this county who can show a certificate showing that she attended one of the Summer Institutes for the term of four weeks of the present year.

Dr. T. H. Lacy kept his appointment at Emanuel Church, despite the inclement weather we had on the first Sunday, and he preached, although he had only two hearers.

Dr. Kennard, Commissioner of the Society of friends writing from Samana in the heart of the famine district of Russia (April 3rd) says there are thirty millions of people in Russia who without aid cannot live to see another harvest, and appeal is made to Great Britian and the United States for aid.

Mr. Reid Acey, who lost his home by fire (an account of which appeared in this paper last week) had lost his home the same way about 18 y. ars ago, and kind friends should now come to his aid.

Gilliam-Glenn.

On Wednesday afternoon, April 10th, at 4:30 o'clock Walker's Church presented a scene of unrivalled beauty when Miss Lillian Glenn became the bride of Mr. Otis Matthews Gilliam, the Rev. Dr. Winn officiating.

The color scheme was effectively carried out in white and green. The rostrum was covered with white and banked with great spraying branches of evergreens and having large jardiniere of bridal wreath and white cherry blossoms, and bedizened with numerous candles, which shed a glow of purest ray serene.

This background contrasted beautifully with the costumes, of the attendants, which were of white organdies with green girdles.

The bride was handsomely attired in champaigne cloth suit with picture hat and tan gloves and carried white carnations tied with white taffeta ribbon. The matron of honor was gowned in green silk and carried white carnations.

Lohengrin's wedding march was played by Mrs. Boyd Ford. As the melodious strains softly reverberated through the church the bridal party entered as follows:

Miss Lucy Marshall with Mr. Tom Hix; Miss Grace Peterson with Mr. Jack Marshall; Miss Ida Gilliam with Willie Morton Gilliam, Miss Fannie Gilliam with Mr. Dan Ford; Miss Eula May Burke with Mr. Billy Gilliam; Miss Flossie Hix with Mr. Lester Sears; Miss Alice Gilliam with Mr. Bernard Cary. Next came Mrs. E. P. Sears, matron of honor, preceded in a most unique manner by little Miss Margeurite Gilliam, niece of the groom, as ring-bearer. Next the groom attended by his brother, Mr. Thomas Dupee Gilliam, as best man, marched up the right aisle, and the bride leaning upon the arm of her brother, Mr. Herman Glenn, up the left aisle and met before the altar where he gave her away. Mr. Erie Glenn and Herbert Gilliam acted as ushers and Mr. E. P. Sears-master of ceremony.

After the ceremony was over the bridal party drove to the home of the groom where an elegant supper was prepared for them.

After supper they engaged in the terpsichorean art much to the enjoyment of all present. Music was made by the Snavely Bros.

They received many handsome and costly presents which are highly appreciated by the happy couple.

The groom is a young and prosperous farmer, of Appomattox, with sterling qualities; while the bride is the attractive daughter of Mr. Luther Glenn, of this vicinity. We bespeak for them a long and happy future.

Spring Mills.

The epidemic, which was so prevalent in Buckingham, has at last reached this locality, and taken two of the young ladies from our midst, and we fear there are others still susceptible to this seeming contagion. This being the second time Mr. Chockletts has been called on to officiate, in this section in the last thirteen days. On Sunday morning at 10 o'clock he united in marriage Miss Pearlie Nash, daughter of Mr. Tom Nash, and Mr. Woolridge, of Lynchburg, at which place they will make their home.

There are still some sick in our midst, but not all, by any means.

Mrs. James Cardwell continues ill.

Miss Mary Davis, who was thought to be critically ill, is reported to be much better.

Another Miss Cheatham "if you please," at the home of Mr. Oscar Cheatham.

Mr. and Mrs F. R. Ramey were the expected guest at Mr. J. H. Morries' on the 15th inst.

We are glad to have Mr. and Mrs. Dabney Tweedy in our midst again.

Mr. Norman Cheatham is reported better.

Mrs. G. T. Morries, accompanied by little Louise and Master Raymond Fleshman, made a visit to Green Hill, the home of her father, last week.

We are glad to hear of the Sabbath schools opening around. We hope to enjoy such a one at Falling River as we had last year. Children must go to Sabbath School, or else they will not take interest in it when they reach the age of manhood and womanhood.

On April the 3rd, Reedy Springs Church was the scene of a pretty marriage. When Mr. Floyd Ramsey, of Charlotte county, and Miss Ava T. Morriss, the accomplished daughter of Mr. J. H. Morris, of this county, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. The church was prettily decorated with juniper and pink and green candles, the color scheme, they symbolizing the ages of the contracting parties. The bride, attired in white lingerie, entered the left aisle on the arm of her sister, Lena also in white; the bride carried a bouquet of white roses, and was met at the altar by Mr. Ramsey, accompanied by his brother. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Chockolate, the pastor in charge, under a canopy of evergreens and candles. The matrons of honor, Mrs. Fleshman, of Bluefield, W. Va. and Mrs. Eddie Dickerson, of Spout Springs, were attired in white and carried pink carnations; Miss Ella Morris, in white over green, and Mr. Elliott Cheatham; Miss Mary Baley, in white over pink, with Mr. Eldridge Cheatham. The bridal party entered the church to the strains of Mendlesohns Wedding March, beautifully rendered by Mrs. C. W. Harvey, of Spring Mills.

The happy couple left on No. 5, of that evening, for several places of interest. On their return the doors of the home of the bride's father were thrown open to the young people, and the atmosphere was made merry by the concourse of young people, who partook of the banquet spread, and the occasion was enjoyed until the early hours of the morning.

The bride presents both numerous and servicable were indicative of the popularity of this young couple. The best wishes of the writer go with this newly wedded couple to their new home.
